CERV-2024-DAPHNE

December 12, 2023

Priorities of the 2024 Daphne call for proposals

1. Large-scale and long-term transnational actions on tackling gender-based violence (11 M EUR)
2. Actions for the protection of and support for victims and survivors of gender-based violence (4.8 M EUR)
3. Actions for the prevention of gender-based violence, in the domestic sphere, in intimate relationships, and online, including through targeted actions with perpetrators (5 M EUR)
4. Targeted actions making integrated child protection systems work in practice (4 M EUR)

Priority 1 Large-scale and long-term transnational actions

- Different themes can be covered: domestic violence, harmful practices, gender-based cyber violence, violence and harassment in the world of work, gender stereotypes;
- Transnational;
- Large scale: grant requested 1 – 2.5 M EUR;
- Long-term impact and structural / systemic / sustainable changes;
- Strong/strategic partnerships.

Priority 2 Protection of and support for victims and survivors of gender-based violence

- The focus of this priority includes children;
- Support to groups at risk of violence (e.g. migrants, minorities, women or children with disabilities, pregnant women, women in detention, children in alternative care, persons in prostitution, elderly women);
- Support to victims of sexual violence (incl. sexual exploitation/trafficking in the context of armed conflict);
- Promotion of multi-disciplinary cooperation;
- Support through national help lines dedicated to victims of violence against women.

Priority 3 Prevention of gender-based violence

- prevention of domestic violence (including coercive control and psychological violence)
- prevention of violence in intimate relationships
- prevention of gender-based cyber violence
- perpetrator programmes to prevent (re)offending

Priority 4 Targeted actions making integrated child protection systems work in practice

- harassment and (sexual) violence, in the formal and informal educational context, community or recreational activities, in the domestic context;
- online and offline bullying, at school or in leisure activities, affecting children with specific vulnerabilities or at risk of discrimination;
- prevention through awareness raising activities, training of professionals;
- early identification and reporting, strengthening referrals between relevant national actors;
- early multidisciplinary support, through integrated response activities, close coordination between authorities and actors at all levels;
- early setting up accountability mechanisms based on indicators, evaluation, data collection, self-monitoring and evaluation tools.

Funded activities:

- Tools to recognise and address violence
- Awareness-raising, outreach and empowerment activities
- Capacity building and training
- Strategies, protocols, development of transferable working methods and tools, coordination platforms and groups
- Measures improving access to victim support services
- Good practices, cooperation, mutual learning, development of working and learning methods
